To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to recommend to you my dear missionary and preacher friend Ed Navato. I have known him and his wife, Elvie, for several years. I have been privileged to preach several revival meetings for him while he was a missionary pastor at Yokosuka Baptist Church, Yokosuka, Japan, and now as pastor of Maranatha Baptist Church, Okinawa, Japan.

I have been with him many times while knocking on doors and giving out Gospel tracts. He loves to see people saved, and he works very hard to get them into church under the preaching of God's Word.

I remember on one occasion in Yokosuka as we were getting out of the auto to enter the church building, two Mormons walked by. Missionary Navato immediately began witnessing to them about the Lord Jesus Christ and in a short time, both of them received Christ as Savior. He invited them to attend our revival services that night and both of them came.

Recently, I preached a revival meeting for him at the Maranatha Baptist Church in Okinawa and it was one of the most encouraging meetings that I have been in for a long time. The attendance was excellent and we had several saved. Two families joined by letter and some were baptized.

Missionary Navato knows how to reach people with the Gospel and build a church. He has been faithful all of these many years and the Lord has blessed him and his dear wife. I highly recommend this missionary.
