| MISSIONARIES TO GHANA |

Hello Friends,

1 Thessalonians 5:11 says, Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do. Thank you for your constant prayers and support, we wouldn't be where we're at without them. All of our meetings have been great so far and there's always been something we've been able to learn from each pastor and their church members. It never ceases to amaze us how God uses the churches to meet our needs, sometimes even before we know we have a need.

It has been another fruitful couple of months, with much work being done and getting a step closer to our mission field. God has allowed us stay busy in our travels, all while picking up some blessings along the way. We were soul winning in Mississippi a couple of weeks ago and Raquel had the privilege of leading a lady named Summer to the Lord. It was great to see how Summer excited was after she accepted Christ as her personal Saviour. Please pray that she'll be able to attend her local Baptist church to follow the Lord in believer's baptism and for her spiritual growth.

For the last year and several months, we have been working on Raquel's U.S. citizenship. She has been a U.S. resident for the past ten years, but we will need to get her U.S. citizenship to avoid VISA complications when we get to Ghana and want to return to the states for furlough. Last week, she was able to get her biometrics done, and now we're waiting for a letter to let us know where she'll take the citizenship test. Your prayers would be greatly appreciated for that as well.

Last week we went through our final week of candidate school at BIMl and we graduated on Friday night (June 11). We're grateful for the men and women at BIMl that God is using to help us and the many other missionaries around the world not only to prepare for deputation and life on the field, but to also be successful in both. There was so much useful information presented to us, we're anxious to apply that which we haven't already.

Thanks you again for keeping us in your prayers. We're looking forward to what God will do through us in the upcoming months. Glad to be your missionaries to the Ghanaians.

With much Love,

The Akuokohs
