“For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ

November 2023

Dear Pastor, Church Family, and Friends,

This year has gone by much too quickly it seems like. I can hardly believe it will be Thanksgiving soon. And by the way, Happy Thanksgiving to all of you. I love Thanksgiving and the smell of roasted and baked everything. One of the most important aspects of God’s character is that He is good. For that, we can all say, “Amen!!!” He has blessed us with freedom, forgiveness, and the fruitfulness of our hands. He has blessed our families, our land, and our worship. Most of all, He has given to us His Son to be our Redeemer. He hears our prayers and is touched with our tears. My verse for this Thanksgiving is Psalm 69:30, “I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.”

After six years, we were able to finally finish and move into a new church auditorium. It is beautiful. Thanks to you, our supporters, our prayer partners, and our church folks here, God has provided a place of comfort, including air-conditioning, in which to worship and preach His holy Word.

We saw many saved in the last few weeks and several who were baptized. A few more joined the church. Ninety-four (94) were saved and eight (8) baptized beginning in September through the end of October.

Luis is from Venezuela. He and his family came to Guyana to escape the communist debacle of Venezuela. He has learned English and is a soul winner. He got saved in our church. Vanessa comes from a horrible home. She lives in a home for neglected and abandoned people. We hold a weekly Bible club there. She is studious and wants to be a doctor. She was saved and baptized in our church. There are others who come from that home to our church. We send a bus every week to pick them up and bring them here. There are others, and each one has a story. They all come here because the church is a God-thing. God started it, and whatever God starts, it is good to join.

Now for Christmas – Christmas is coming soon, you know. You can feel it in the air, right? Not where we are; it is hot all year long. We always have a green Christmas, sometimes a wet one, as that is the start of our rainy season. You know how you can have a white Christmas? Live it. Isaiah 1:18 says, “Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow.” If you and I will tell someone else about the goodness of God through Christ, they too can have a very merry Christmas. And that is our wish for you – from our family to yours.
